Asialicious Carnival Returns September 5–7, 2025, Celebrating Chinese Culture with BMO as Presenting Sponsor

[Toronto, August 22, 2025] – The Federation of Asian Canadians Toronto (FACT) is proud to announce the return of the Asialicious Carnival, taking place from September 5–7, 2025 at Woodside Square in Scarborough. Now in its seventh year, this highly anticipated cultural festival has grown into one of the largest Asian cultural celebrations in the Greater Toronto Area – drawing over 80,000 visitors across three days.

This year, the Carnival will spotlight dynamic Chinese culture, while also celebrating multiculturalism through a diverse lineup of performances representing Asian and global traditions. Guests can look forward to authentic cultural cuisine, captivating stage shows, and family-friendly activities designed to immerse visitors in a true cultural experience.

Highlights of the 2025 Asialicious Carnival include:

- Multicultural Performances – Showcasing the diversity of Asian and international traditions through dance, music, and live entertainment.
- Stilt Walkers – Adding excitement and energy to the festival grounds with dazzling displays.
- Han Fu Dress-Up Experience – An interactive opportunity for visitors to try on traditional Chinese attire and take photos.
- Signature “Starry Night” followed by spectacular Fireworks Show – Saturday evening (September 6) will feature “Starry Night”, with multicultural performances and a breathtaking fireworks display – marking one of the Carnival’s most anticipated traditions.

In addition to cultural showcases, Asialicious Carnival provides opportunities for small businesses, artists, and local vendors to engage with the broader community, creating lasting social and economic impacts.

The 2025 Asialicious Carnival is made possible thanks to the generous support of its sponsors. BMO joins us as the Presenting Sponsor, demonstrating its strong commitment to supporting their clients and the community. FACT also extends its gratitude to supporting sponsors: Woodside Square, 95 Developments, Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (HKETO), Compass Holidays, and Sweven Media. The event is also supported by the Government of Canada and Metrolinx, whose contributions help bring this celebration to life.

The event is free to attend and open to the public.
